AKI WORKSHOP: INCLUSIVE PRACTICES IN THE ARTS

WED JAN 29 | 8:30-12

Calling all educators, teaching artists, clinicians and cultural program administrators!

All Kids Included (AKI) professional development trainings provide a hands-on approach to learning about inclusive strategies and adaptive techniques for including every learner, together with the knowledge of universal design. Educators gain a sense of excitement and renewed energy, as well as practical skills on how to use the arts to inspire learning and include students with disabilities in a variety classroom and community settings.
