Miami-Dade County Department of Cultural Affairs All Kids Included 2020 Annual District-Wide Student Art Competition Celebrating Courage, Difference and Friendship

This design competition is open to all Miami-Dade students in grades Pre K-12, through the school's art teacher, or directly by the student through the Miami-Dade County Public Library System. Art teachers, or students through the Miami-Dade Public Library System, may submit designs for final consideration by the Miami-Dade County Department of Cultural Affairs.

CONTEST GUIDELINES:

- 1) The All Kids Included (AKI) district-wide student art competition is held each year in conjunction with the All Kids Included Family Arts Festival, and is open to all Miami-Dade students in grades Pre K-12. The AKI Family Arts Festival is presented annually as an innovative, interdisciplinary community arts festival for children and families with or without disabilities, and features live performances, interactive arts activities, student field trips, a district-wide student art competition and exhibit, and community resources for parents.

For the art contest, student artists are invited to submit original art work depicting the competition and festival theme and are asked to draw on the competition and festival's selected book for inspiration. Semi-finalists and finalists' artwork will be exhibited at one or more regional Miami-Dade County Public libraries and/or during the AKI Family Arts Festival at the South Miami-Dade Cultural Arts Center.

- 2) The All Kids Included theme for 2020 is inspired by the book, The Boy Who Grew Flowers by Jen Wojtowicz, Illustrated by Steve Adams. The Boy Who Grew Flowers is a unique and inspirational story of courage, difference and friendship. It is the story of a shy boy named Rink who grows flowers from his body during the full moon who befriends the new girl, Angelina, who has one leg shorter than the other. The beautifully illustrated book featuring ethereal paintings on textured boards is a wonderful story that celebrates differences and the power of kindness. Students are asked read the selected book for inspiration.
