

Yani Trevin Rubio, NMT, MM, MT-BC, a native of Miami, received her Bachelor of Music and Master of Music in music therapy from the University of Miami. Rubio has over 22 years of experience working in vast settings with an emphasis on special needs. She created and produced, "This Is ME!", a full-stage theater production including individuals with and without special needs and their families. Rubio is part of the professional development team for the Miami-Dade Department of Cultural Affairs All Kids Included Initiative. She has been running camps since 2003 with an emphasis on inclusion and individuality. Rubio served as adjunct professor at the University of Miami within the music therapy program. She has created new programs, lectured abroad as well as at various universities in South Florida, and has broadcasted on radio and TV on the positive effects of music therapy. She is a certified Neurologic Music Therapist Fellow.